

OX-Frame Reels

Unique, Rugged Tactical Fiber Optic Reels

Lightweight, easy-to-deploy fiber connectivity solutions.

OX-Frame Reels from Grass Valley, a Belden Brand, have become familiar sights wherever fiber optic cables are used in remote events and operations.

Virtually all high profile sports broadcasts worldwide take advantage of these reels, as do important news events and award shows. You'll also find them in military operations around the world.

That's because these reels have proven themselves for carrying and protecting fiber optic cables in extremely demanding environments from the desert to the South Pole to Mount Everest.
